- We make affirmative sentences with the subject (I, you, we, you, they) and the verb. If the subject is he, she, it, we add "s" or "es" to the verb.

Examples:

I work in London.

She works in London.

- To make sentences negatives we use DON'T or DOESN'T.

Examples:

I like tennis but I don't like football. (don't = do not)

John doesn't live in Manchester. (doesn't = does not)

Angela doesn't drive to work. She goes by bus.

- We use do and does to make questions with the present simple. We use does for the third person singular (she/he/it) and do for the others.

Examples:

Do you play the piano?

Where do you live?

Does Jack play football?

Where does he come from?

- We often use adverbs of frequency like sometimes, always and never with the present simple:

I sometimes go to the cinema.

She never plays football.
