

INGLÉS I

Unidad 1: Vocabulary Activity: IT Jobs & Formal/Informal Greetings

1. Warm-up (5 minutes)

'What jobs do you know in the IT world?' Brainstorm

-
-
-
-

Here are more:

- Software developer
- Systems analyst
- IT support
- Network engineer
- UX designer
- Project manager
- Web developer
- Data analyst

2. Matching Activity – IT Jobs (10 minutes)

What do they do? Match each IT job with the correct description.

IT Job	Description
1. Software Developer	a. Helps with computer problems
2. IT Support	b. Manages and plans tech projects
3. Project Manager	c. Creates and tests code
4. UX Designer	d. Builds and maintains websites
5. Web Developer	e. Designs easy-to-use interfaces

3. Formal vs Informal Greetings

Read the greetings. Decide if they are formal (F) or informal (I). Then match with the correct situation.

Greetings:	Formal or Informal?	Situations:
a. Good morning, Mr. Smith. b. Hey, what's up? c. Hello, how can I help you? d. Hi there! e. Nice to meet you.		1. Meeting a friend 2. Answering a call at work 3. First-time meeting in a formal setting 4. Talking to your boss 5. Talking to a classmate

4. Speaking Practice

Work in pairs. One is a new developer, the other a team member. Use formal or informal greetings.

Example:

A: Good morning! I'm Laura, the new web developer.

B: Hello Laura, nice to meet you. I'm Alex, the project manager.

Optional Homework

- Write 5 sentences using different IT jobs.
- Create a mini dialogue including a formal greeting and introduction.

Key to exercise 2:

IT Job	Description
1. Software Developer	c. Creates and tests code
2. IT Support	a. Helps with computer problems
3. Project Manager	b. Manages and plans tech projects
4. UX Designer	e. Designs easy-to-use interfaces
5. Web Developer	d. Builds and maintains websites

Key to exercise 3:

Greetings:	Formal or Informal?	Situations:
a. Good morning, Mr. Smith.	F	4. Talking to your boss
b. Hey, what's up?	I	5. Talking to a classmate
c. Hello, how can I help you?	F	2. Answering a call at work
d. Hi there!	I	1. Meeting a friend
e. Nice to meet you.	F	3. First-time meeting in a formal setting

