Inglés I

Vocabulary:

TECHNOLOGY

DEVICES AND COMPUTER PARTS

A laptop is a small computer that you can carry around.

A desktop is a big computer that stays on a desk.

A tablet is a small computer with a screen you touch to control it

A smartphone is a mobile phone that works like a small computer.

A screen is the flat part of a computer where you see images and words.

A keyboard is the part with buttons where you type letters and numbers.

A touchscreen is a screen you can touch to control a device.

A touchpad is a small flat part on a laptop that you move with your finger.

A mouse is a small device you move with your hand to control the computer.

A pen drive or flash drive is a small device that stores files and can be plugged into a computer.

Headphones are devices you wear over your ears to listen to sound.

A speaker makes sound louder on a computer.

THE INTERNET:

A website is a page or set of pages on the internet.

A URL is the address you type to go to a website.

A browser is a program that helps you search the internet.

A link is some text or image that you can click to go to another web page.

A tab is a section at the top of a browser that opens another page.

Social media are websites or apps where people communicate and share things.

An attachment is a file, photo, or document sent with an email.

Streaming is watching or listening to online video content without downloading it first.

VERBS:

TECHNOLOGY - VERBS
test-english.com
1
PLUG IN 2
UNPLUG
3
CHARGE
4
ON SWITCH ON 5
power off
SWITCH OFF
6
E-Mail username
Password:
Forgot Password
SIGN/LOG IN 7
SIGN/LOG OUT
8
GO ONLINE
9
UPLOAD
10
DOWNLOAD 11
SCROLL UP/DOWN
12
SHARE
test-english.com

When you plug in a device, you connect it to a power source using a wire.

When you unplug a device, you disconnect it from electricity by removing a wire.

When you charge a computer or phone, you connect it to a power source to fill the battery with power.

When you switch on a device, you press a button to turn it on and make it operate.

When you switch a device off, you press a button to stop it from working.

When you sign in or log in to an account or program, you enter your name and password so that you can start using it.

When you sign out or log out, you exit an account after using it.

When you go online, you connect to the internet.

When you upload a file, you copy it from your device to the internet.

When you download a file, you copy it from the internet to your device.

When you scroll up or down, you move the information on your screen or down.

When you share a file, you make it available for other people to use.

You can follow the link below to the source material to practice this vocabulary with online exercises:

Source: Test English